Celebrate Black History Month and a world of peace

Feb 13 - Mar 1, Honolulu Hale Courtyard ~ Opening Reception Feb 15, 4:30 - 6 pm

The African American Diversity Cultural Center of Hawaii (AADCH) and the office of Councilmember Kymberly Marcos Pine present this exhibit that honors America's first president of African descent and born and raised in Hawai'i. It will also feature a variety of art forms promoting peace, including paintings, calligraphy and more.

Trees for Honolulu's Future and Healthy Climate Communities

Jan 30 - Feb 27, Honolulu Hale 3rd Floor

Local elementary school artists teach us the value of trees for our quality of life with their original artwork. This exhibit is presented by Trees for Honolulu's Future and Healthy Climate Communities. Both non-profits promote tree planting on Oahu to capture carbon to curb rising temperatures, as well as to adapt to the higher temperatures we are already experiencing.
