Hawai'i's Diverse Africana History

Feb 12 - 25, Courtyard. Reception on Feb 21, 4:30 - 6 pm

People of African descent began arriving in Hawai'i from around 1750. This exhibit explores the significant contributions these people, and future generations, made to the islands. Also on display will be poems written by Hawai'i's students, about peace, inspired by and in honor of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Helene Hale, legislator and Hilo mayor.

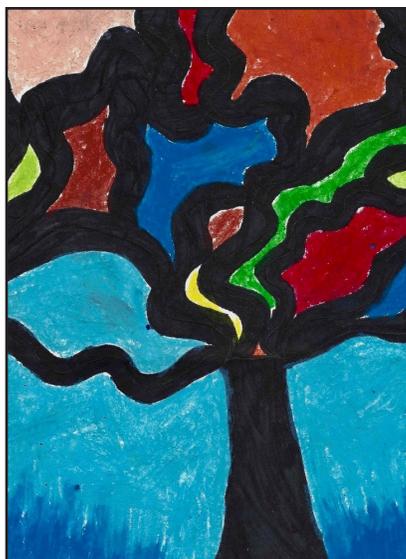

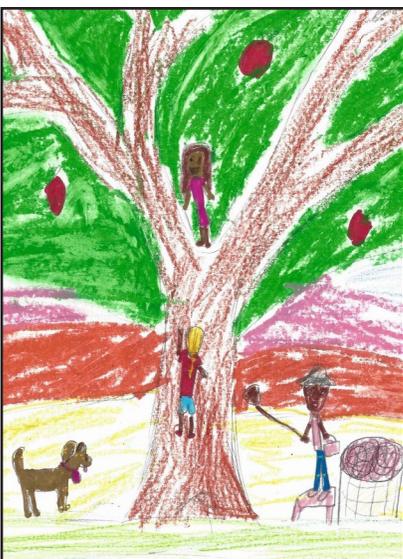

Nolle Smith, whose construction company helped build the Pali Tunnel and who was elected to the Territorial Legislature in 1928.

We Love Trees

Jan 29 - Feb 27, 3rd Floor Gallery

Local elementary school artists teach us the value of how trees affect our quality of life, through their original artwork. This exhibit is presented by Trees for Honolulu's Future, a non-profit organization promoting tree planting on Oahu. Trees capture carbon to curb rising temperatures, as well as help vto adapt to the higher temperatures we are already experiencing.

Good Neighbors & Environmental Heroes

Feb 1 - 27
Lane Gallery

Presented by the City and County of Honolulu's Storm Water Quality Branch. This exhibit showcases the volunteers who made significant contributions to the City and County of Honolulu's Storm Water Quality Programs. Volunteer efforts by these Clean Water Heroes include creating awareness of storm water pollution and water quality issues in streams and the ocean; educating and informing specific audiences about impacts of storm water pollution; and actively engaging in best management practices to reduce pollutant in storm water runoff. Do you want to be a hero too? Find out more at www.cleanwaterhonolulu.com.
