

Kāhea

Newsletter of the Mayor's Office of Culture and the Arts

Umia ka hanu. (Be patient. Don't give up too early.)

What used to be the Mayor's Office of Culture and the Arts Calendar of Events is now Kāhea, Newsletter of the Mayor's Office of Culture and the Arts! Kāhea is a Hawaiian word meaning "to call out" or "announce."

MOCA has evolved over the years and so has the content of the Calendar. Now, along with listing our events, it often includes announcements about opportunities for all the arts and information on what our office is involved in. We hope you will carry forward with us as we continue to grow!
